Question No. (1) Opinion of the Private Sector on the Scope of Priority:

The General Secretariat of the Supreme Legislation Committee in the Emirate of Dubai seeks to achieve its priority of “Creating future-driven and agile legislation that accommodates future advancements and aligns with the government priorities, with focus on impact assessment and reducing the cost of living and conducting business”

The scope of priority has been determined as follows:

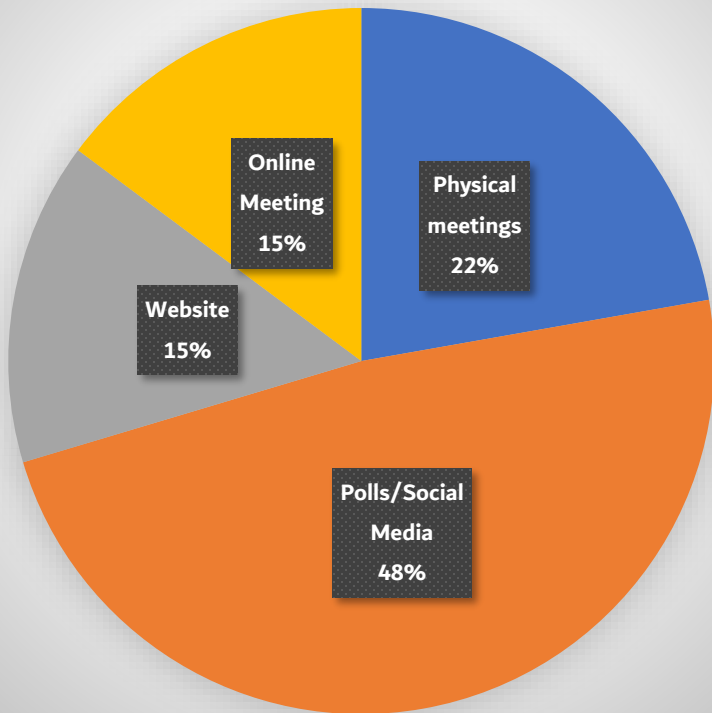

1. Ensure the establishment of a legislative framework that aligns with the strategic plans and future directions of the Emirate, while ensuring the flexible and swift implementation of the Dubai Plan 2030 in respect of the future developments of the legislative process.
2. Ensure the effective participation of the private sector in the process of drafting and proposing legislation.
3. Anticipate the potential effects of legislation before it is issued, and its impact on various groups (individuals, investors, institutions, or companies, etc.).
4. Assess the impact of legislation after it is issued.
5. Explore the impact of legislation on the global competitiveness indicators of the Emirate.

Can the scope of the priority effectively achieve the strategic priority?

Question No. (2) Civic Engagement:

What methods do you prefer to use when expressing your opinion about legislation?

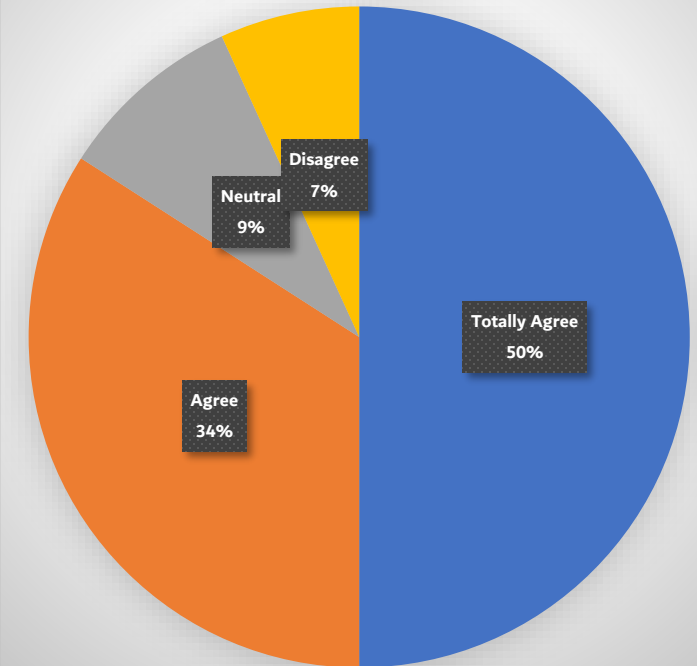

Can the participation of affected groups in the legislative process serve the interests of society?

The involvement of the private sector and the influential and affected stakeholders in the legislative process and taking their views on the legislation before its issuance will have a positive impact on conducting business and reducing the cost of living

It is important to seek the opinion of various groups of the community on legislation that could affect the conduct of business and the cost of living before its issuance.

Question No. (3) Legislative Impact Assessment:

It is important to conduct studies on the impact and outcomes of legislation before its issuance as this will significantly affect the ability to achieve the objectives of the legislation.
